

Qualifications of Membership

ARTICLE IV Fees and Dues

Sec. 1. The admission fee for initial membership into the Society shall be twenty five (25) dollars.

Sec. 2. The readmission fee for former members of this Society shall be thirty (36) dollars.

Sec. 3. The monthly per capita dues for Regular members shall be three (3) dollars.

Sec. 4. Honorary members and the Society Chaplain will not be required to pay the admission fee nor any dues.

Sec. 5. The Society will sell Life Memberships for $360 dollars.

Sec. 6. The Secretary will notify, in writing, those members whose dues are not paid for four (4) consecutive months. A second and final notice will be sent to those members whose dues are not paid to date by the fifth month. This final notice will inform the member that the full amount due for six months membership must be remitted prior to the sixth month of his delinquency. Failure to remit this full amount prior to the end of the sixth month will automatically terminate his membership in the Society. The Secretary will announce, at the next regular meeting, the names of any members whose membership has been terminated.

This announcement will be duly recorded in the minutes of this meeting.

Sec. 7. The Society, by a two-thirds majority of the eligible members voting at a regular meeting, may raise or lower the admission fee and/or the dues stated herein.

Sec. 8. Those members who have maintained membership, in good standing, in the Society for forty (40) continuous years are exempt from the dues stated herein.

Sec. 9. Life members will not be required to pay dues.
